BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY. OUNTESS HERMANN VON WE-DEL, who is reported to be dy-ing in a sanatorium at Breslau, where she has been confined for some years past, suffering from incurable mental infirmity, is of half-American and half-Belgian parentage, and at-tracted some attention thirteen years ago by the publication at Brussels of an extremely silly book entitled, "My Relations with Emperor William II.," which she endeavored in vain to get printed on this side of the Atlantic.

Prior to her marriage she was known as Emily Berard, and managed to inveigle into a wedding ceremony the late Count Hermann Wedel, elder brother of Count Charles Wedel, who is the Governor and stadtholder of Alsace-Lorraine. The union was regarded as being to such an extent a mesalliance by the count's family and at the court of Berlin, that he found it difficult to remain in Germany, was forced to retire from the army, and to take up his residence in Switzer-The couple did not remain very long together. In fact, the count left her after only a very few months, and immediately took steps to obtain a divorce regretting, too, late, the mistake which he had made in giving a name so honorable as that of his house to be dragged in the gutter, and to be misused in the half-world in Berlin and Vienna. He secured his freedom from her several years before the accession of Emperor William to the throne; and at the time when the present Kaiser commenced his reign had already been married for at least eighteen months to his second wife, now his widow.

In spite of the divorce, it was found impossible to prevent the woman from styling herself the Countess Hermann Speculation would receive the active every now and again managea to get support of the government, he declared, men who were ignorant of her his-if these amendments were put into tory and devoid of brains and of knowledge of the world, entangled in Mr. and Mrs. F.
